

Early Journal Content on JSTOR, Free to Anyone in the World

This article is one of nearly 500,000 scholarly works digitized and made freely available to everyone in the world by JSTOR.

Known as the Early Journal Content, this set of works include research articles, news, letters, and other writings published in more than 200 of the oldest leading academic journals. The works date from the mid-seventeenth to the early twentieth centuries.

We encourage people to read and share the Early Journal Content openly and to tell others that this resource exists. People may post this content online or redistribute in any way for non-commercial purposes.

Read more about Early Journal Content at <http://about.jstor.org/participate-jstor/individuals/early-journal-content>.

JSTOR is a digital library of academic journals, books, and primary source objects. JSTOR helps people discover, use, and build upon a wide range of content through a powerful research and teaching platform, and preserves this content for future generations. JSTOR is part of ITHAKA, a not-for-profit organization that also includes Ithaka S+R and Portico. For more information about JSTOR, please contact support@jstor.org.

any drainage appliance or any part of the soil pipe or waste pipe, or any fixture, sink basin, water-closet, or trap attached to said waste pipe or soil pipe, shall forfeit and pay a penalty of not less than $5 nor greater than $25.

SEC. 6. Any person or persons or corporation owning any lot or lots bordering on a public or private sewer are required to drain such lot or lots by an underground drain or sewer, with an efficient trap at the opening in each lot to prevent sand or solid substance from being washed into the conduit. The occupant of every lot shall empty all liquid household wastes and washwaters into this sewer, and shall see that the trap is kept clean and the cover of the trap kept closed.

SEC. 7. Any person or corporation who has built, or shall in future build, any drain or sewer in a lot or street in this city, or who shall in anywise use or control such drain or sewer, shall cleanse the same whenever it shall be in an unhealthy condition. The sanitary inspector shall notify the owner or person controlling such uncleanly sewer to clean out same in such time as the health officer may direct; and for every failure to comply with such notice a fine of not exceeding $25 shall be imposed for each day said nuisance shall continue thereafter.

SEC. 8. That any dwelling house or building wherein people live, congregate, or assemble which is deficient in ventilation, drainage, or other provision essential to health, or is below grade so as to render the walls thereof damp and the rooms unhealthy shall be considered a nuisance.

* * * * *

SEC. 15. To beat, brush, shake, or otherwise clean carpets, rugs, or hangings, or renovate old mattresses in any yard, street, alley, or public place in the city of Augusta is forbidden.

* * * * *

SEC. 30. In case of failure or omission of any owner, agent, or occupant of house, lot, or land to abate any nuisance upon written notice from the board of health to them or their agent within the time specified, the board of health may proceed to abate the nuisance at the expense of the owner or occupant, and as soon as the expense is ascertained, execution shall issue for the same and the amount be levied on and made from his or her or their property.

Premises—Care of. (Reg. Bd. of H., Sept. 29, 1914.)

SEC. 9. Any lot which is unclean, filthy, or offensive shall be abated at once by the tenant in charge, unless there be more than one occupant of the lot, or it be a vacant lot, when it becomes the duty of the owner or agent to abate same in the time required. All grass or weeds in yard or lot shall be cut and removed upon written notice from the board of health.

* * * * *

SEC. 22. Inspectors shall see that all cellars are whitewashed, and the floors thereof freely limed whenever notified by the health officer to do so, which must be at least once yearly. The foregoing is to be done by the tenant in possession. All cellars holding water shall be pumped out and kept dry by the owner of the property.

Spitting—Prohibited in Public Places. (Reg. Bd. of H., Sept. 29, 1914.)

SEC. 10. Spitting on any sidewalk, floor of a public building, or street car in this city is a nuisance, dangerous to health. Any person violating this ordinance will be punished by the recorder by a fine of from $1 to $5. Policemen, janitors, conductors, and sanitary officers shall see that this ordinance is enforced.